Warning: Failure to secure workers' compensation coverage is unlawful, and shall subject an employer to criminal penalties and civil fines up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), in addition to the cost of compensation, damages as provided for in Section 3706 of the Labor Code, interest, and attorney's fees.

8. Owner-Builder Declaration: I hereby affirm that I am exempt from the Contractor's License Law for the following reason [Sec. 7031.5, Business and Professions Code: Any city or county which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractor's License Law (Chapter 9, commencing with Section 7000, of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code) or that he is exempt therefrom, and the basis for the alleged exemption. Any violation of Section 7031.5 by any applicant for a permit subjects the applicant to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500):

I, as owner of the property, or my employees with wages as their sole compensation, will do the work and the structure is not intended or offered for sale (Sec. 7044, Business and Professions Code: The Contractor's License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who does such work himself or through his own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended or offered for sale. If, however, the building or improvement is sold within one year of completion, the owner-builder will have the burden of proving that he did not build or improve for the purpose of sale.)

I, as owner of the property, am exclusively contracting with licensed contractors to construct the project (Sec. 7044, Business and Professions Code: The Contractor's License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and contracts for such projects with contractor(s) licensed pursuant to the Contractor's License Law).

I am exempt under Section _____, B.&P.C. for this reason:

Important Instructions to Applicant

Please read the information below and follow the directions pertaining to your particular application. Parts I, II and III of the General Application apply to construction permits for structures, electrical, plumbing/mechanical, demolition/removal, and sign permits only. For all other permits/approvals, complete Parts I, III and IV. California State law requires every permit applicant to provide specific information and certain declarations regarding the proposed work. A separate application is required for each building permit.

1. Approval Type

Check appropriate box for type of approval needed. Separate electrical, plumbing and/or mechanical permits are required for projects other than single-family residences or duplexes.

2. Project Address

Provide the correct project address, legal description, existing use, Assessor's Parcel Number, and a description of the proposed project.

3. Designer

This person is either the architect, engineer, designer or draftsman.

4. Applicant

This person is either the owner or contractor or their authorized agent, and is generally the liaison for the project.

5. Property Owner

This may be a person, company, corporation or a partnership.

The following instructions describe who may sign the required declarations.

6. Licensed Contractor

This statement may be signed by the contractor or a corporate officer of a construction company including President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Trustee, Chairman of the Board or Responsible Managing Employee (RME). An agent for the contractor may sign only when a letter of authorization from the contractor authorizing the agent to sign is presented at permit issuance. The person signing must list his/her title.

7. Workers' Compensation Declaration

This statement may be signed by the contractor, owner, tenant, lessee or an authorized agent of one of these. A valid Certificate of Workers' Compensation Insurance must be presented at permit issuance. The certificate:

a. Must show the name of the insured.

b. Must list the policy number, effective date, and expiration date of the insurance policy.

If item 7.c. is checked, only the contractor or owner may sign this area, NOT AN AGENT. This section is signed only when the owner or contractor will have no employees on the job. If, after signing the exemption from the Workers' Compensation provisions of the Labor Code, the contractor or owner-builder should become subject to such provisions, they must forthwith comply. In the event they do not comply with the Workers' Compensation Law, the permit shall be deemed revoked.

8. Owner-Builder Declaration

This statement may be signed by the owner, lessee, tenant, architect, engineer, licensed pest control operator, or an authorized agent of any of these. In every case, a separate Owner-Builder Verification form (DS-3042) must also be signed by the owner.

9. Construction Lending Agency

If the name of the lending agency is not known, the word "unknown" should be written here.

10. Applicant's Signature

This statement must be signed by the person identified in item 4. By signing this statement, the applicant certifies that the information provided in the application is correct and that he/she is the owner or the duly authorized agent of the owner. Further, this signature authorizes representatives of the City of San Diego to enter upon the subject property for inspection purposes.

11. Financially Responsible Party

Required for subdivision or development approval/permit processing. Individual listed must also sign the declaration.

12. Public Notice Certification

Complete when a public notice package is required (Process 2, 3, 4 and 5 decisions).
